

Herbert Feuerstein

On 6th October 2020 Herbert Feuerstein, a famous German TV personality, is died.

We remember him as president of J.P. Halvah Foundation, created by Alex Randolph (with his cat's name!) to help the up-and-coming game authors.

The Foundation was our partner for Premio Archimede, on this page you can see a video with a chat between Randolph and Feuerstein in 1994 in Venice.
